Miss Nettie Tharp.

The following obituary notice of a former normal school student is taken from the Press-Democrat of Santa Rosa, Cal. Miss Tharp will be remembered by many Ashland people:

"Tuesday afternoon Miss Nettie Tharp passed to her eternal rest. She was born near Klamath Falls, Ore., and there resided until she had completed her high school course. She was one who applied herself and made each moment worth while. Soon after her school course was completed she took the teachers' county examination and began teaching near her home. The deceased was a girl of more than ordinary ability and ambition, and wished to climb higher in the educational world. Hence in a short time she, with her parents, moved near Ashland, Ore., where she completed a course in the Ashland State Normal, graduating with honors, and immediately took up teaching as a profession, which she clung to until stricken down with a complication of diseases, which finally resulted in tuberculosis of the kidneys, and from this dread disease she lingered for more than three years. An operation was performed and the best medical aid sought in hope of recovery, but all to no avail. She loved life, loved nature, loved her school work and was loved by both the pupils and patrons of her school. She was a success as a teacher and disciplinarian. And while on a bed of pain and realizing that she would never recover, her time was often occupied reading cheerful letters from her scholars in Oregon and Arizona, where she had spent a great part of her young life teaching. Few girls have the host of friends she had. Always agreeable, cheerful and busy, she won to her heart all with whom she came in contact.

"She longed to get well, that she might comfort and care for her aged parents, in whose hearts she was an ideal. But after she was confined to her bed last January she saw there was no hope and wished to be released from her pain and taken home that she would not prove a burden to those she loved most. Yet she was never impatient or fretful. Friends came from far and near, with little tokens of love to make her last days as pleasant as possible.

"The funeral services took place at her home near Windsor on Thursday afternoon. A friend who had known her from her childhood days, had charge of the services at the house, and Miss Fannie Philpot and Mrs. J. F. Wallace of Santa Rosa sang. The interment was in Shiloh cemetery, where the Rebekah lodge of Windsor, of which she was a member, had charge, and with their beautiful and impressive service Nettie was laid to rest awaiting the resurrection of the just. A large procession followed the hearse to the cemetery, and many and beautiful were the floral offerings. She leaves a mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cooper of Windsor, two brothers, George Tharp of Hawaii and James Tharp of Coalinga, beside a host of friends to mourn her death.

"The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the aged parents who will miss the one they so tenderly watched for so many months. A FRIEND."

George Ashley Jeffery.

George Ashley Jeffery was born in Petaluma, Cal., February 6, 1854, and died in Talent, Ore., August 23, 1912.

He was the second in a family of seven children and is survived by two brothers and one sister. One brother, Richard, is a practicing attorney in Boston, Mass., and a brother, Charles, and the sister, Mrs. Lillie Michelson, reside at Canby, Ore.

The father of the deceased was the Rev. James Jeffery, who for 40 years traveled as a Methodist itinerant in the west, largely in the state of California, doing heroic work for Christ all along the coast.

When our brother was 13 years old the family returned for a short time to the state of Wisconsin, traveling by way of the Isthmus of Panama and New York. The parents had walked across the isthmus when they first came to California.

Remaining in Wisconsin only six months, they removed to the state of Kansas, where they lived for more than 20 years. There in the year 1881 he was married to Lillie L. Frizzle, who has shared with him the joys and sorrows of life until now and remains among us with blessed memories of more than 30 glad years. In 1888 they removed again to California and in 1898 settled near Ashland, Ore., from whence they came in 1904 to Talent, settling upon the ranch which we all know as their home and a place of truest hospitality.

One daughter, now Mrs. Gertrude Yeo, and four sons, Walter, George, Clarence and Ernest, and an adopted son, Charles R. Whelan, have gathered this home, and all survive the father, whom they love and honor.

Brother Jeffery was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church when he was about 21 years of age, and lived to see all of his children in full membership in the church, the youngest son being received on the last Sunday morning of his father's life.

He was one of the original members of the church at Talent, a member of the board of trustees, and though of a retiring nature, was always, if possible, at his post of duty, and contributed to the support of the church with a generosity which meant sacrifice, but gladly offered because expressing the love he bore his Master.

His occupation has always been that of a farmer and he has sown seed not only in the soil of Kansas, California and Oregon, but also in many human hearts "for a reaping by and bye."

The funeral was held at the church on Sunday, August 25, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. George H. Way, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. J. A. Lemery.

Some Ashland People May Wait Till It's Too Late.

Don't wait till too late. Be sure to be in time. Just in time with kidney pills. Means curing the backache, the dizziness, the urinary disorders. That so often come with kidney troubles.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for this very purpose. Here is testimony to prove their merit.

F. W. Gray, 507 Palm street, Medford, Ore., says: "A few years ago my kidneys began to bother me and the trouble was aggravated by my occupation, which requires me to be on my feet the greater part of the day. When I began work in the morning I felt all right, and after I had been on my feet for a couple of hours my back began to pain me and at night I could hardly straighten. In some way I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. They cured me in a short time and in return I am pleased to recommend them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
